

Daily Telegrams...

...the Largest Circulating Daily of the Islands

o. 332

Port Blair, Friday, December 03, 2021

Web: dt.andaman.gov.in Training prog. on preparation of bakery products & plantation based cropping system concludes

Port Blair, Dec. 2

ICAR-Krishi Vigyan Kendra, Port Blair conducted twin training programme on 'Empowerment of rural women through Preparation of Bakery Products' at KVK, Sippighat and 'Plantation Based Cropping System' at Bridavan from Nov. 29 to Dec.1 for farm women and rural youth which culminated with a valedictory function. Shri Ramesh, Assistant Director, Department of Agriculture, South Andaman who was the chief guest of the function urged the trainees to initiate their own enterprises.

Dr. L.B Singh in his address, highlighted that women are key agents for achieving the economic and social changes required for development of the community while Dr. Pooja Kapoor, SMS (Home Science), Course facilitator briefed about the objectives of training programme.

(Contd. on last page)

(Contd. from page 1)

Dr. Y. Ramakrishna, Head ICAR-KVK, Port Blair who inaugurated the training programme earlier, highlighted the scope and importance of plantation based cropping system in Bay Islands and its opportunities for employment generation etc. Dr. N. Bommayasamy, SMS (Agronomy) course facilitator and Dr. B.K. Nanda, SMS (Agrl. Engg) also spoke on the occasion. Dr. Thanmai Paul, Farm manager shared his experience in nutrient management on plantations crops, a press release from KVK CARI said.